1 until I receive and review your briefing, and hopefully, that 2 will be soon after next Friday, you will get a ruling on all
3 of this, because I'm not waiting for the parties to respond
4 to each other. So let's do five pages next Friday, and 5 addressing the issues that we have discussed today.

6 The motion for an extension of the CMO will be 7 denied, because of the parties -- or the Court's repeated 8 admonition that only the most exceptional circumstances would 9 justify it, and I don't find that you have shown exceptional

10 circumstances, and so the discovery deadline is September 22, 11 2023. If you want to conduct discovery after that, you may 12 by mutual agreement, but it will not be governed or policed
13 by this Court, and that is -- and that there is also 14 discovery -- or the deadline for asking me to resolve
15 disputes is 14 days after the end of discovery. Doc. 198

16 remains the case management order in this case.

17 And Jaye is going to be dismissed as moot with the 18 consent of the parties. That's all I'm going to do now.
19 I'll receive your briefing next Friday. Are there any 20 questions?

21 MR. WYLIE: No, your Honor.

22 MR. LEVY: Just one, your Honor, if I may.

23 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

24 MR. LEVY: I understand that the schedule is not 25 being extended. In terms of expert disclosure dates, is it
